Reflection on War & Peace

Isaiah 2:4

He shall judge between the nations and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation; neither shall they learn war any more.

The Bible opens and closes with harmonious scenes. The original creation in Genesis 1–2 and the new creation foretold in Revelation 21–2 are peaceful bookends at either end of a complex plotline. As we navigate a world marred by conflict and bloodshed, we should keep in mind the beginning and end of God's story. Isaiah 2 prophesies a day when warfare will cease and all nations will be united in peace. What a day that will be. That is clearly God's desire and intention. We can't resolve all the knotty bits, but we can trust the one who turned the violence on himself to redeem his enemies.

In the meantime, we are called to be peacemakers in the messy middle... When we choose to love our enemies and forgive those who have wronged us, we are fighting the good fight of faith. And, as surely as Jesus is Lord, we know that we are on the winning side.
